The selection of the mode of transport depends on the location, the ultimate goal of the cargo and the requested delivery time.

ROAD TRANSPORT

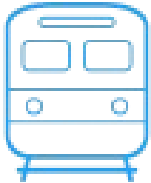

Logistics123 provides a full range of road cargo transportation. Transportation in both the EU and CIS countries is the main area of our business activity.

Logistics123 delivers complex cargo and groupage, oversized, heavy and project cargo as well as goods requiring special delivery conditions.

ALL EU & CIS COUNTRIES, TURKEY, IRAQ, IRAN AND SYRIA

RAIL TRANSPORT

Logistics123 offers a full range of cargo railway transportation, services include:

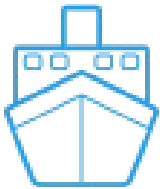

- detailed consulting
- preliminary fares calculation from the departure to the destination station
- providing route information and optimization of transportation
- loading works using special equipment
- processing of shipping documents

ALL CIS COUNTRIES, Rail transportation from China to Russia
(transportation term: 14-20 days)

MARITIME TRANSPORT

Logistics123 offers sea freight using FCL (Full Container Load) and LCL (Less Container Load) standards.

We provide a full range of services in terms of sea transportation:

- Export/import
- Terminal cargo handling in ports (repacking, consolidation, storage etc.)
- Road or railway transportation to/from port
- Short-sea service
- Door-to-door sea freight
- International sea freight is suitable for almost any type of cargo. However, it is the most beneficial for long distance transportation of large-capacity cargo.

Freight of international high-speed vessels, high-quality service in the sea and river ports, reliable forwarding and proper cargo clearance – these are the factors that make international sea transportation an optimal solution for the company.

AIR TRANSPORT

Logistics123 provides a range of services in air transportation, which is considered as the fastest and most reliable mode of transport. Service list includes:

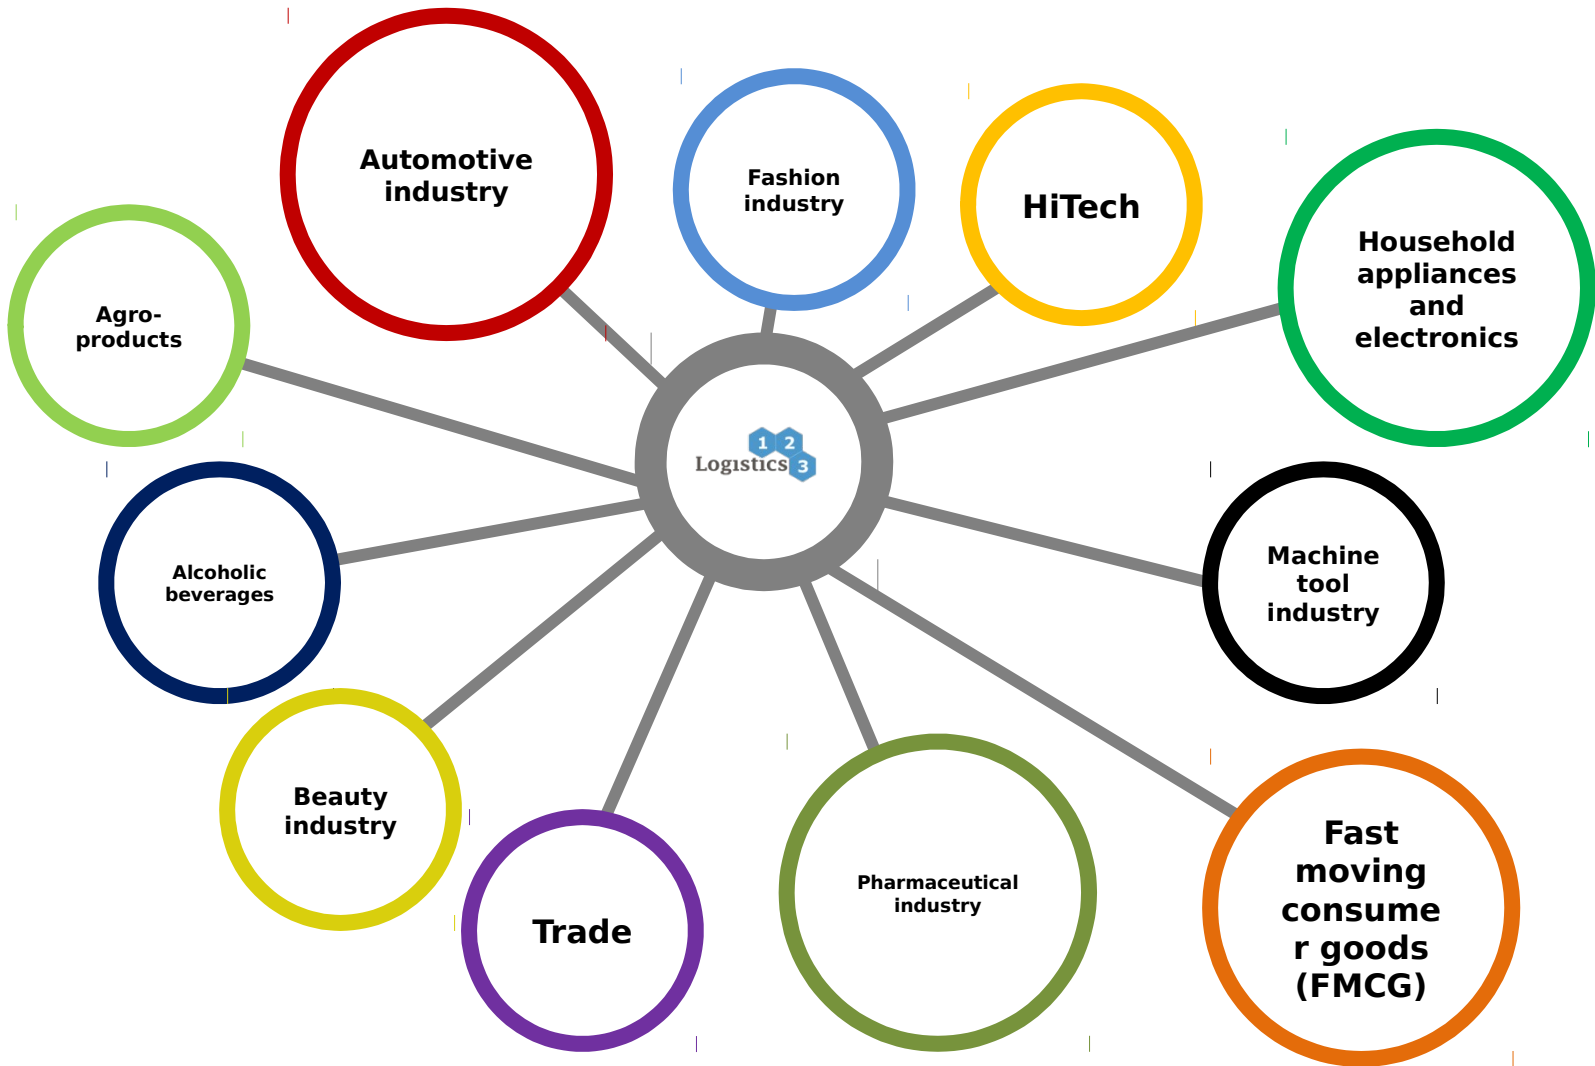

- Cargo delivery to/from airport by ground transport
- Customs clearance
